The Marietta Police Department Traffic Unit is currently investigating a serious injury crash/hit and run. On May 27, 2006, at approximately 11:40 p.m., a horse drawn carriage being operated by Clint Small was traveling south on Powder Springs Road, between Griggs Street and Grambling Street, in the right lane. A brown 1994 Nissan Quest Mini-van, being driven by an unknown male, was in the same lane traveling south on Powder Springs Road and struck the rear of Small's carriage. The mini-van then veared left out of its lane and struck a 2001 Mitsubishi Montero in the side. The mini-van then came to a rest in opposing traffic lanes. The driver of the mini-van fled the area on foot prior to police arrival. Small and the passenger of his carriage were transported to Wellstar Kennestone Hospital for their injuries. Small is currently listed in good condition at Kennestone Hospital. Small's passengers have been released from Kennestone.
